March 1, 2026—Second Sunday of Lent (A)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Church of the Transfiguration on Mt. Tabor in Israel

Every second Sunday in Lent, we hear a Gospel account of the Transfiguration of the Lord. In this event, Jesus revealed his glorified body to Peter, James, and John. The disciples' response seems rather puzzling, though: "Let us build three tents (or 'huts'): one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." It seems disciples were seeking a moment to rest in this amazing encounter and have a place—a destination—where they and others could come to see the Lord and these revered prophets. In a way, this was a first step in 'capturing' the religious experience to a specific place or a specific time so that they could come back and draw strength from it later. In a way, the disciples were asking Jesus if they could build the first church on that mountaintop site.

Our church buildings and structures are the places where heaven and earth unite. A church building is the nexus point for the Church militant, the Church suffering, and the Church victorious, where all gather, singing the unending angelic hymn of Holy, Holy, Holy is God Almighty. (see Rev. 4:8) We hold special regard for these places where the Christian community gathers by anointing its walls, consecrating its altars, and reserving its spaces for the exclusive use of sacred rites. In many old churches, one can vaguely sense the decades of burnt incense and beeswax candles lingering in the air and on its walls. One can see the effects of generations of feet which have tread the steps or the hands which have opened the doors or the knees that have knelt on its kneelers. There is something special about our church buildings, but they do more than give shelter or simply mark the location of events in a family's or community's history. They are the places where we encounter the Glorified Body of Christ in the Eucharist and the other sacraments. Here, too, we encounter the reality of the Christian people gathered as the Mystical Body of Christ.

It turns out that the disciples did not build a church on that site the day that Jesus was transfigured before them. In fact, all the Gospel accounts tell us that they were silenced until after the Resurrection. It would be years later that the site and the memories of the day would be memorialized by an altar and church building.

Is there something we might learn from this? I wonder if the disciples still had more to learn about the resurrection before they could be ready to commemorate the sights and sounds of that amazing day with a Church or pilgrimage site? I wonder if they were halted because they were not yet in full possession of the mystery which Jesus wanted them to have a glimpse of? I wonder if Jesus thought they were getting ahead of themselves in trying to commemorate in buildings an event that had not yet fully marked their hearts and minds and souls?

Whatever the reason, the Transfiguration reminds us that our faith is more than history, buildings, institutions, politics, customs, locations, cultic practices, people, saints, visions, hopes, and dreams—as good as these things may be. The Transfiguration reminds us of the absolute centrality of Jesus Christ—the Risen Lord whom we encounter in the Eucharist—as the center and the summit of our faith! Church buildings are sacred spaces, but not an end to themselves. Our Churches memorialize the mystery of God dwelling among us. They are an inspiration towards divine worship and unity in the community of believers. But most of all, they point to Jesus.

Amazing Grace Awards For Kindness and Grace

The Amazing GRACE Award

Presented to

This award is in recognition of the Kindness and Grace you show to others both in and out of the classroom. In doing so you have truly lived your faith and showed those around you the best version of who you are. Keep shining your light into the world and always remember to be Kind, be Compassionate, be Generous, share a Smile or a Hug, and remember God has created you for a beautiful Purpose.

Holy Schell President of the #BeLikeGrace Foundation

#belikegrace

"The Lord will fight for you, you need only to be still" exodus 14:14

On Monday, February 23, St. Dominic School awarded five students with the Amazing Grace Award to recognize students who are living a message of kindness and grace that God placed on their heart. These students have been recognized by the way they use kindness and good will to shine God's light into the world. The awards are made possible by the #BeLikeGrace Foundation. When our St. Dominic School students share God's light and grace with others, we all experience Holy Moments of KINDNESS and GRACE. When our students see ordinary moments of helping others, as an opportunity to collaborate with God, Holy Moments happen every day at St. Dominic School. During the Lent season, our school will recognize five students each week. Thanks be to God for the generosity of the #BeLikeGrace Foundation!
