Third Sunday of Easter

APRIL 19, 2026

Acts 2:14,22-33; 1 Peter 1:17-21;
Luke 24:13-35

One “key word” is found in each of the Scripture readings of today’s Mass and in the Responsorial Psalm. It is the word path. (In the second reading and Gospel it is translated “way.”) The conclusion of the first reading is: “You have shown me the paths of life.” Our Responsorial Psalm refrain is: “Lord, you will show us the path of life. In the second reading Peter says, “You were delivered from your futile path of life... by Christ’s own blood.” In the Gospel, two disciples are on the path to Emmaus.

Very likely most of us have experienced a post-Easter let-down. This was in evidence last Sunday when our attendance was about half of what it was on Easter Sunday! Some have gone back to their old path of life already. We’ve been on a “high,” and now we settle back down to the drudgery of daily existence. It must not be so! Christ has risen; he is with us! Our path of life must be different!

The two on the path to Emmaus were disciples, not apostles. A disciple is a follower, a learner, one who studies to become like his master. Perhaps these followers did not recognize Jesus because they had never seen him! They followed him because of the proclamation of good news. But now, it seemed as if their world had collapsed; they went down the path to Emmaus in dejection and desperation.

Jesus opened their minds to the Scriptures. But still they didn’t realize his presence. They finally recognized him “in the breaking of the bread.” The Gospel wants us to understand that we encounter Jesus in the Eucharist. “The breaking of the bread” was the ancient name for the Mass or the Eucharist.

The risen Lord Jesus can deliver us from our futile paths of life. He is always present to us in his word and in his sacrament. But we must come out of ourselves to find him. We must look up and out. Let us renew our realization of the presence of the risen Lord each day. And let us realize that he truly will show us the path of life.

Third Sunday of Easter, April 19, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

We gather together continuing our celebration of the Easter mystery. Christ is risen! Alleluia! And the “risen Christ is here among us” Alleluia! As we celebrate this third Sunday of Easter, we have another experience of the Risen Christ, only this time by two disciples on their way to Emmaus. In this experience we have two unnamed disciples who were distraught at the death of Jesus, and now trying to comprehend the talk of this Jesus being raised from the dead. Things were not adding up for them. And as they traveled, this stranger seemed to join them from out of nowhere, asking them questions of what they were discussing. As the scripture tells us, “their eyes were prevented from recognizing Him.” As they discussed even further sharing their experiences of this Jesus who suffered and died, this stranger “opened the Scriptures to them, making their hearts burn while He spoke to them.” He seemed to break open the Scriptures to these two disciples and they longed for Him. Their understanding was clearer and just when this stranger seemed to be leaving them, these disciples encouraged Him to stay longer and continue helping them understand. They said, “stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over.” So He did. And then it happened. “He took bread, said the blessing, broke it and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him, but then He vanished from their sight.” Because of that experience, they found the apostles together and told them about their experience and how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.” My brothers and sisters, each time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, that road to Emmaus experience becomes our experience. Hopefully when we hear the Scriptures, our hearts are burning to find out more; and then when we break bread, we find the risen Christ in the gift of the Eucharist and our hearts rejoice as we realize that the Lord has risen and is here among us.

We received word from the diocese that all of the new appointments will be announced next weekend by the Bishop. I ask your prayers as transitions are always difficult and not always understood by both the priest and parishioners. But God always has a way of giving His grace to all who are in need.

Also, next Friday, the Grade School is celebrating Grandparents/Special Person Day. We will begin the day with Mass at 8:20 a.m. For all those parishioners who attend the regular Mass on Friday, please make sure you make this change on your calendars. I also caution our regulars by telling them that this Mass is very crowded and well attended. But again, our Friday Mass, April 24, will be at 8:20 a.m. and not the regular 8:00 starting time.

As we look ahead, I want to announce that we will have a May Crowning of the Blessed Mother in Church on Friday, May 1, at 8:45 a.m. It’s a beautiful ceremony as we pay honor to Mary as our Mother and the Mother of the Church.

Our construction project continues and the building is taking shape. There are a lot of things being done on the inside and we hope and pray that the weather continues to cooperate. There is still much to be done. Let’s continue to pray for the safety of our workers. And of course, I continue to encourage you to keep up on your pledges for our new building. It is a structure for which we all can take much pride.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I want to remind you about the "Everybody Wins Mega Raffle" that is currently taking place in all of our Catholic schools. This is the only Fundraiser that supports all K-12 Catholic Education here in Quincy. To keep our schools strong, we need all of our parishioners to help us sell tickets. I encourage you to pick up a series of tickets and do your best to sell them to family, friends, and neighbors. Tickets are available in the parish offices, the school offices, or at the front entrance of QND. Please help us make this fundraiser a success, for when it is then our students will enjoy this success.

One of the practices encouraged during Lent was the Rice Bowl. The proceeds of these bowls or the bowls themselves can be placed in a container in front of the pulpit. Thank you for those who participated as they will assist and help the poor throughout the world.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

I can't say that I've ever gotten a shave from a barber, but I've seen others who have. I was in a shop once, and obviously a new barber nicked a customer several times while giving him a shave.

The new man, in an effort to smooth things over, asked solicitously, "Do you want your head wrapped in a hot towel?"

"No thanks," said the customer. "I'll carry it home under my arm."

From the pulpit: "I asked my wife to look over my notes for today's sermon and mark out everything dull. So, in conclusion....."

St. Peter School

Week of April 19, 2026

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

GRANDPARENT SPECIAL PERSON'S DAY Mark your calendars! It's almost here!

Our students have been working very hard practicing for the upcoming Grandparent/Special Person's day that takes place on Friday, April 24. Our day begins with 8:20 Mass. Students will meet their grandparent or special person in church. Following church our grandparents/special person are invited to visit with grandchildren in their classrooms from 9:20-10:10. The special music program begins at 10:25. Our school day ends at 11:30 when the performance is over.

Parents are invited to see the special student program the day before on Thursday, April 24 at 1:15.

We are extremely grateful to Mrs. Sara Reeder, our Music teacher, for working so hard with our students to share this special performance with our visitors.

Teacher Opening—We are hiring! Come and be part of an outstanding and committed staff for the 2026-2027 School Year.
