Solemnity of The Ascension

MAY 17, 2026

Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23;
Matthew 28:16-20

Heaven is not “up;” hell is not “down;” earth is not in the middle. Often, however, we visualize a “three storeyed” universe. In many ways this is a problem: If we imagine Jesus going “up,” we may think of him as far from us, as billions of light years away. It’s hard to imagine him as close to us with such an idea.

The ascension of Jesus is not his being “taken away” from us. Rather, the ascension means that he enters the dimension of the Father’s glory. His sacrifice is accepted by the Father, who takes him to “his right hand.” At the “right hand” of the Father, Jesus is our Mediator, our Intercessor with the Father. We can have perfect confidence in the love of the Father, for Jesus is “at his right hand.”

At the same time, Jesus has not departed from us. He has entered the Father’s glory in order to be closer to us than he was in his visible, physical body. He is right here with us. We can, therefore, have confidence in our prayers which are heard by the Father “through Jesus Christ our Lord.” We can have confidence that Jesus, who is with us, knows us, cares for us, loves us, and will see us through every crisis.

Our first reading describes the ascension. Jesus is taken into the cloud of the Father’s glory. It is the same cloud we saw in the Exodus, in the dedication of the temple at Jerusalem, and in the Transfiguration. While the apostles gaze at the scene, angels tell them and us to get busy. We must not rest until we proclaim the “Good News” to every creature.

In the second reading, St. Paul tells us that Jesus is our one unique Mediator with the Father. He is superior to every angel and every other creature. We come to the Father through him.

The word “fullness” means “every thing that makes one to be who he is.” Jesus is the fullness of the Father; everything that is the Father resides bodily in Jesus. And we, the Church, are the “fullness” of Jesus! Everything that is Jesus Christ resides in us, the Church. Let us be aware of our dignity and live accordingly.

The Gospel is sometimes called “The Great Commission.” As he ascends to the glory of the Father, Jesus commands us to go forth and teach all nations. Are we faithful to this command?

The Ascension of the Lord Solemnity, May 17, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

Many of us remember when we learned the Holydays of Obligation in the Catholic Church. I remember the good Sisters at Blessed Sacrament teaching us that other than Sundays, there were six other Holydays that Catholics were obliged to celebrate by attending Mass on those days. After eight years of grade school education, most of us could remember and recite the six Holydays. If you remember, they were Christmas, the Solemnity of Mary, (January 1), the Ascension of Jesus into heaven (40 days after Easter), the Assumption of Mary into heaven (August 15), All Saints Day (November 1), and the Immaculate Conception (December 8). Of the six that we learned, one of them was changed to the Seventh Sunday of Easter and that was the Ascension into heaven. No longer could we state as we learned that this Holyday was 40 days after Easter. Rather the Catholic Church of the province of Illinois transferred this Solemnity to a Sunday of the Easter season so that more Catholics would see the need to celebrate it. Apparently Ascension Thursday, 40 days after Easter, people failed to celebrate this Holyday of Obligation, so it was changed. There are however, a few provinces in the United States that still celebrate this Solemnity on the 40th day after Easter.

In our first reading for our Mass on this Solemnity of the Ascension of Jesus into heaven, we hear “about what Jesus did and taught until He was taken up into heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. He presented Himself alive to them by many proofs after He had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.” Then we hear, “When He had said this, as they were looking on, He was lifted up, and a cloud took Him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as He was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, ‘Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen Him going into heaven.’” So, this Solemnity of the Ascension of Jesus into heaven is a reminder that we are not to be looking upward but rather outward and get busy sharing our faith with others.

Our construction continues for those who have been following along. The last few weeks, the “skywalk” started to take shape. We received the exterior metal paneling, so that will start to go up in conjunction with the brick. The construction will really start coming together, now. Some of the exterior glass will also be taking place with the interior rough-in continuing and walls are starting to get mud and taped. This week, the significant amount of mechanical rough-in and drywall continues inside. The tracks were installed for partition walls, and the elevator contractor was onsite this week to coordinate with the electrical and get mobilized for installation. Slowly but surely our construction is taking place. Just a reminder to continue your pledges to help us fund this project.

Our QND graduation will be celebrated this Sunday, May 17, at 1:00 p.m. in the Pit (gym). On behalf of our parish, I congratulate our graduating seniors. Our prayers are with them as many will continue their educational experiences, or join the workplace, or serve their country. Congratulations!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Just a reminder that Monday, May 25 is our annual day for our celebration of our Memorial Mass at Calvary Cemetery. This Mass will begin at 9:00 p.m. and St. Peter Church will be responsible for this Mass. Don't forget that if it rains that day, this Mass will be transferred to St. Peter Church at the same time. Please bring your lawn chairs, blankets or whatever that you can sit upon during our Mass. As is the custom, I ask you to remember our Catholic Cemeteries with your generosity. There are special envelopes for this generosity in your parish envelopes. The monies received from this collection will help us be able to complete some much needed projects in our cemeteries. We want to make sure that our cemeteries are dignified places for our deceased. "Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace."

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

A little girl on a bus kept whispering to her mother. At last the mother said firmly, "For the last time I'm telling you to stop whispering and speak up."

"Hasn't that man got a big, red nose? Bellowed the child in a tone that could have been heard two blocks away.

Joe Medwig, former St. Louis Cardinal baseball star, was on a tour of Rome. He was granted permission to see Pope Pius XII. As usual His holiness asked him his name and occupation.

Joe obliged: "I'm Joe Medwig. I used to be a cardinal too, Sir."
