JUNE 21, 2026

Jeremiah 20:10-13; Romans 5:12-15;
 Matthew 10:26-33

Quite often, we would like to keep quiet. After all, who wants to make waves except a rabble-rouser or a fanatic? Jeremiah (first reading) would have preferred to keep quiet. God had told him to announce the doom of his nation because of its corruption. Because of his message, people hated him and wanted him dead.

The second reading tells us that we suffer the effects of original sin. We don't always see (or want to see) the pure truth of a matter. We are always tempted to take the easy way out, the line of least resistance. We are tempted to rationalize. It is easy to settle for mediocrity. But Christ has redeemed us! Original sin is no excuse for mediocrity, for Christ's redemption is more powerful than original sin's effects.

In the Gospel, the Lord tells us not to be intimidated by this world. Why should we be afraid to proclaim the truth? If people stood up to tyrants, there could be no tyranny. If we stood together against evil, there could be no evil!

Remember the old saying of Edmond Burke: "The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is that the good do nothing!" Jesus calls you to stand for him, to witness for him.

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From Sister Austin:

As I prepare to embark on a new chapter after three blessed years, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the parish community of St. Francis Solanus.

From the moment I arrived, you welcomed me with open hearts and made me feel at home. Through your kindness, friendship, prayers, encouragement, and generosity, you have been a constant source of support and strength. Your generosity in so many ways, both seen and unseen, has helped make these years in Quincy a time of great blessing and growth. The love and care I have experienced in this parish community have been a true gift from God, and I will always cherish the memories and relationships formed here.

Above all, I am deeply grateful to Father Steven Arisman, pastor, for his kindness, guidance, and pastoral support. His generosity and example of faithful service have been a blessing to me throughout my time in Quincy.

In addition, I would also like to extend my sincere thanks to the Austin's Army work group and the Francis Fraternity Men's Group for their countless acts of kindness.

Thank you again, St. Francis Solanus Parish and community, for allowing me to be part of this loving and caring parish. Please know that you will remain in my prayers, and I humbly ask that you remember me in yours.

May God bless each of you abundantly for the kindness, love, and support you have shown me. Be assured of my prayers.

Blessings,
Sister Austin Therese

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father."
MATTHEW 10:32

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!
