Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JUNE 28, 2026

2 Kings 4:8-11,14-16a; Romans 6:3-4,8-11;
 Matthew 10:37-42

Elisha succeeded Elijah as the great prophet in Israel in the ninth century before Christ. Remember that a prophet is not a predictor of the future, but a spokesman for God to call people back to God through repentance and faith. The couple at Shunem offer hospitality to Elisha, not so much because he is a friend as because he is a prophet.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that we must not prefer anything to him. The person who seeks only his own selfish goals will bring himself to ruin; he will lose his immortal soul.

He goes on to tell us that our faith must go beyond mere friendship: We must accept those who are sent by God precisely because they are sent by God, and not because we happen to like them. Personalism and human friendship is wonderful; but our faith must go beyond this.

In his epistles, Paul invents new words. He wants to show that the Christian is completely identified with Christ. What happens to Christ must happen to the Christian. He says we are “conjoined” to Christ by baptism; we become “co-bodies” with him; we are “co-buried” with him in baptism; we must therefore rise in him.

The meaning of the Christian life is to live out Christ’s life: We offer our lives in union with him to the Father; we suffer with him; we rejoice in him; we die in him; and therefore, since we belong completely to Christ, we must rise gloriously in him.

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that discipleship is not simply one commitment among many; it must be at the center of our lives. Loving Christ above all else allows us to recognize Him in the people we encounter each day. The hospitality shown by the woman in the Book of Kings to the prophet Elisha became an opportunity for God's blessing to enter her home. In the same way, every act of kindness, generosity, and welcome offered in Christ's name becomes a channel of God's grace. As we gather for the Eucharist this week, may we ask the Lord to help us place Him first in our hearts and to recognize His presence in those who come into our lives.

This weekend we say goodbye to Sr. Dr. Austin Therese. She is on to her next assignment and we are sad to see her go. Please come and join us in the hall after the 9 a.m. Mass to say goodbye and thank you. It will be a simple event but please thank Sister for her wonderful presence and give her your prayers and goodbyes.

We announce exciting news!! Aaron and Karen Weiman have been accepted into the permanent diaconate formation program! Please keep them in your prayers as they begin this new experience! How exciting to have this vocation coming from our parish.

If you notice the organ project is finally coming to completion. The renewal and additions are complete and now we only wait to tune the organ to finish. Once the tuning is done we will do a concert to start this new beginning with such a wonderful instrument. We are so blessed here at St. Francis with such a gift of this organ.

This weekend all the priests say goodbye to their parishes as they move to their new assignments or retire. Please keep them all in your prayers, including my uncle, Msgr. Leo Enlow. After 51 years of priesthood he retires. Well done good and faithful servant. Pray for all the priests that begin their new assignments, especially Fr. Troy Niemerg who moves into St. Francis Rectory this week. Please welcome Fr. Niemerg as he begins his work at Quincy University.

"...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." Matthew 10:38

Pope Benedict XVI said "The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness". "Comfort" puts me first. "Picking up your cross and following Jesus" puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!

Pope Leo XIV Speaks:

Social justice is characterized by the capacity of a social, economic and political order to allow everyone – particularly the weakest – to live a truly dignified life, without leaving anyone behind.

Magnifica Humanitas, 77.

Social justice requires us to look at individuals and communities, starting with the most vulnerable: the poor, migrants, refugees, internally displaced persons, victims of violence and people living in urban or existential peripheries.

Magnifica Humanitas, 78.

Thought of the Week:

Even though the poor are often rough and unrefined, we must not judge them from external appearances, nor from the mental gifts they seem to have received. On the contrary, if you consider the poor in the light of faith, then you will observe that they are taking the place of the Son of God, who chose to be poor.
