Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 12, 2026

Isaiah 55:10-11; Romans 8:18-23;

Matthew 13:1-23

About this time of year, the “Plains States” complete the wheat harvest. Some farmers got a good yield of forty bushels to the acre. If you told a farmer that he could get a yield of more than 200 bushels to the acre, he would say that you are nutty as a peach orchard owl!

Yet that is what Jesus promises in the parable of today’s Gospel: The seed which fell on good ground yielded a hundred-fold; that would be about 250 bushels to the acre!

Parables were simple stories with a strange twist. People loved them because they were simple, and because of the strange or weird or spectacular twist. The point of the parable is that God’s word can do spectacular things – if we are the “good ground.” And God’s grace can do absolutely nothing for the person who closes his heart to God!

All that we have and all that we are that is good comes from God. He is the giver of every good gift. But there is a catch: He expects a return on his investment in us. If he has lavished his grace and blessing on us, he expects that we shall bear good fruit.

The second reading tells us that all the sufferings of this world are as nothing when compared with the unending joy which awaits us in heaven. We may suffer for a time, but we shall live eternally, if we are the good ground if we seek to bear a good harvest.

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it." Isaiah 55:11

Good news from our Scriptures this weekend beginning with the passage from the prophet Isaiah. Our Lord tells us in no uncertain manner than His words, the Sacred Scriptures shall not return to Him void! That means no matter what, when we hear the Words of God, whether in Church, at Mass, in Christian music, in a devotion like the Rosary, etc. it will bear God's fruit. The manner of bearing fruit may not even be obvious to us at all. For that matter, it really does need to be something that we are conscious of. God works through us in various ways even without our knowledge. Isn't that good news!

BACK TO THE FUTURE It is so good to be back in my Quincy home of St. Peter Church. It feels so good to be celebrating Mass with so many people I recognize as well as many new parish family members. It is like the best of both worlds. In some ways it feels like I never left! Thank you so much for the warm (if not hot) welcome of this past week. May God's Holy Spirit continue to move us forward together!

ARE WE GOING TO HAVE A PAROCHIAL VICAR AT ST. PETER? The short answer is yes, I hope, eventually. Fr. Gerald Zienaa, a priest from the Archdiocese of Tamale, Ghana has been assigned here with the permission of his Archbishop. The next step is for him to obtain his Visa. This has been in progress now for a couple months. As of this writing, if things go perfectly well, he could be here by the middle or end of September 2026. Of course, in an imperfect world it could take much longer.

WILL WE KEEP ALL THE SAME MASS SCHEDULES? Yes, as much as is humanly possible. Fr. Leo and area priests will be helping with Masses here at St. Peter. We will do our best. Please watch the bulletin as we traverse this ever changing landscape.

SEMINARIAN JOSEPH TUTTLE ARRIVES FOR 6 WEEKS. Joseph is in the Ordination Class of 2028 and is 24 years old. Currently he is in Theology II at St. Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology in St. Meinrad, IN. His summer education included a visit to Rome. He will now complete his summer here with us at St. Peter. He is from Rockford, IL and is a cousin to Fr. Dominic Rankin who is from Quincy! Welcome Joseph!

May God's most Holy Spirit continue to lead us and guide us!

"Biking for Babies" is a pro-life organization of young-adult missionary disciples who strive to raise awareness of the important work of pregnancy resource centers. Each missionary partners with a Pregnancy Resource Center and commits to learning about all they do, praying for the center, and raising funds for the center.
