Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 19, 2026

Wisdom 12:13,16-19; Romans 8:26-27;
Matthew 13:24-43

At times, we are tempted to want God to destroy our enemies. Like the apostles, we want to call down fire from heaven to consume the evil doers. But that is not God's way!

No other religion in the world preaches compassion and mercy and forgiveness for the evil doer as does genuine Christianity. Among others, justice and retribution are swift and decisive.

Our God is not like that. He shows his power most perfectly in his mercy! He forgives the unforgivable in order to draw all people to himself. Our first reading, from Wisdom, describes this loving kindness.

The Gospel is the parable of the wheat and the weeds. The word for "weeds" in the original language is for a specific weed, called darnel. Darnel looked very much like wheat in its early growth; it even headed out like wheat, but it was poison.

If we wanted to make an allegory out of the parable, we could say that often a religious spirit can be "faked." Evil often masquerades as good, so we must be cautious.

But a deeper message is that God permits evil to exist with a hope for the conversion of the evil doer. The existence of evil in the world should challenge the Christian to a stronger faith – and to greater mercy in order to be like God.

The second reading should give us confidence: The Holy Spirit is within us. Through him, we are empowered to withstand evil and to be strong in the face of weakness.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 19, 2026

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

"If you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest time." Matthew 13:26

This Gospel from St. Matthew gives us an insight into God's mystery of Love. Not only does He care for His followers, but he also cares enough not to allow the "weeds" to be a source of damage to them. And of course, we are the good wheat. So sensitive to the soil of Christ that even the weeds are allowed to grow as not to perjure our own growth in any way. Another way to say this is that WE ARE NOT CALLED TO PERFECTION BUT TO HOLINESS! What does that look like in your own life?

A FEW DAYS AWAY FOR FR. DAN Traditionally the third week of July is my vacation to the mountains of Colorado. Prudence dictates a shorter and closer venue just west of St. Louis for a few days of R & R. Thank you to Fr. Leo and Fr. Chuck Edwards for presiding at the Masses this weekend.

ARE WE GOING TO HAVE A PAROCHIAL VICAR AT ST. PETER? The short answer is yes, and his name is Fr. Gerald Zienaa, a priest from Tamale, Ghana in Africa. His visa is still pending. As of now we wait for his Visa which is in the purview of his home country. Thank you to Fr. Leo and our area priests as we do our best to keep the same Mass schedules during this time of transition.

SCHOOL ADDITION UPDATE This past week the School and Church staff met with the Project Manager and the Contractors. There is a very tight schedule to meet all the requirements for the Certificate of Occupancy. It's going to be a 'squeaker' but definitely very possible as much has been 'ironed out' and streamlined to make our goal for the opening day on Tuesday, August 18! Keep Praying!

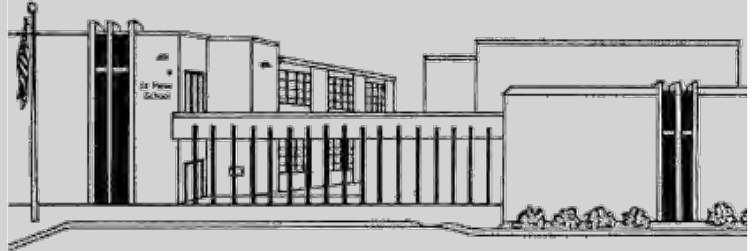

THANK YOU FOR THE KINDNESS AND WELCOME I am getting much more settled in my new home which is very familiar and comfortable already. What most thrills me is your kindness and welcome. I have seen so many pictures of children receiving their first communion from me as well as "Father, you had our wedding" or buried my husband and the list goes on. The opportunity to come back to St. Peter after almost 20 years and meet the next generation brings joy to my heart and peace in my soul. Thanks to all of you for sharing these Sacramental Milestones. As we say amongst our brother priests, this is the best paycheck ever! God Bless You and Thank You!

May God's most Holy Spirit continue to lead us and guide us!
