August 16, 2026—Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In this week's Gospel, Jesus finds himself in the far-north reaches of the region of Tyre and Sidon. These two cities are on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, about 20-40 miles south of the modern-day city of Beirut. The residents of Canaan and the Jews have a long history of unfriendliness caused by many factors, not the least of which was the displacement of the Canaanite peoples as the Jews entered into their "Promised Land". Jesus knew that his end was near, and he was not able to travel about freely without great crowds following. So Jesus and his disciples were having some free-time in advance of going to Jerusalem to encounter his passion.

A woman identified as a "Syrophenician" by Matthew, asks innocently enough for assistance from Jesus, calling out the Messianic title, "Son of David!" She asks for her daughter to be delivered from a demon. What follows is surprising. Jesus insults her. "I am here for the lost sheep of Israel!" She persists, but Jesus intensifies his insult: "You do not feed to the dogs that which belongs to the children!" And then she turns on Jesus, "but even dogs eat what falls from the master's table." With this Jesus relents and extols her persistent faith. Her daughter is saved.

It is hard to consider exactly how to interpret these passages--Jesus wasn't simply having a bad day. But why was he testing her... so harshly? One thing that comes to mind is to recognize the importance of persistence... even in the face of dishonor. Jesus was going up to Jerusalem to die... would his followers have the toughness to push back against the small insults? Some think Jesus as a purely serene, even pacifist figure. What we see here is a bit of his toughness. Do you have what it takes to follow me? Show me. Remember: "many are called, but few are chosen."

It concerns me when people have their feelings hurt by 'the Church' or, more properly, by the 'people in the Church'. I regret that sometimes I myself have been at the center of those problems either as a leader who has to do what I have to do, or sometimes through the faults that sometimes slip out of my own human weaknesses. I, too, have also known the feelings of betrayal at the hands of the Church—it's an awful feeling to deal with and it is very hard on one's faith. We have all perhaps, heard stories of things that happened many years or decades ago, perhaps involving very minor issues that have significantly impaired one's relationship with the Church to this very day. The work of reconciliation is never-ending in the life of the Church, and it is often tremendously challenging.

The solution to these challenges involve promoting greater civility between all members of the Church, of course, and also making courageous and humble efforts to promote understanding and reconciliation for those who feel offended. I think our Gospel encourages us to take a wider view of our relationship with the Church. While the Church is of divine origin, it is always in a state of ongoing purification while its members strive to become, truly one in the Body of Christ. It is rarely easy-going as we struggle to live in cooperation, humility, and mutual understanding.

Do we have the confidence that God is part of this process... even in the process of 'smoothing the edges' that are in each of us? One of the signs of a strong Church is how it deals with adversity within its ranks. Usually there are no easy answers to many of the 'rubs' that develop in our life together, but by having the faith to call on God and the persistent courage to stand with what is truly good, while really listening to each other will aid us in our lives together.

Thank you to our ushers who came out for the ministry training last week. Our intention for these meetings is to brush up on best practices for this ministry and to welcome new ushers who need to know the baseline expectations for this ministry. We intend to do a similar programming for our other liturgical ministries in the coming months, so if you are or are interested in becoming a greeter, an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, a lector, or a sacristan, please keep an eye out for the announcement.

Ushers are fundamentally 'ministers of hospitality' on the front lines of welcoming parishioners and guests and helping them not only get situated as they come through our doors, but they are also there to be alert and responsive to needs that present themselves... safety from weather, awareness of outside activity, sudden illness, or even those who wish to do harm to our gathered community. They are all to have participated in the "Safe Environment" programming prescribed by the Diocese of Springfield, and are a visible shield of vigilant awareness for the vulnerable among us. Finally, their presence is one of welcome and accommodation. Thank you to all who stand that line and assume the role of 'usher'. You are the first ministers that people meet, setting the tone for transition out of the everyday world and onto 'holy ground' here at Church.

2026-2027 Welcome Back to School Parent Letter

I have said this to you,
so that in me you may have peace.
In the world you face persecution.
But take courage;
I have conquered the world!
John 16:33

St. Dominic School of St. Anthony of Padua Parish
Where Holy Moments Happen Every Day

Welcome back to school for the 2026-2027 school year! We hope you have enjoyed a relaxing summer with your family and friends. We pray that your family is happy, healthy, and getting ready to begin a new school year as members of our St. Dominic School Family.

Let us begin by reflecting on our genuine partnership between school staff and school parents. Our school staff recognizes that parents are the first and primary educators of their children. St. Dominic School is privileged to partner with parents who are committed to the quality of their children's learning experience, and who realize that the values their children learn are just as important as any instructional content. We approach this partnership in a spirit of mutual respect and cooperation, and genuinely appreciate the many ways in which parents strengthen and support our school's culture.

Every year, we look forward to the opportunity to enhance our Catholic community of service and culture of belonging. At St. Dominic School, no one learns or provides service alone. Students and staff flourish in a community, where they can be assured that they belong and know they are loved. We foster a learning community in which all members - students, teachers, families, parishioners - benefit from the bonds they form with one another through service, where everyone has a place and a stake in the school's present and future wellbeing.

We are sincerely grateful to God for our blessings of faith, patience, and kindness. Faith in our Lord holds our school family together and helps us grow closer to Him. Patience and kindness guided by the Holy Spirit provides the strength we need to develop relationships and care for one another. We have experienced many Holy Moments over the years by doing what our Heavenly Father calls us to do for each other. Please join me in giving thanks to God for His many blessings and gifts!

Therefore, let us begin this school year with the relationships we have developed and nurtured so we can remain in partnership and fulfill our school mission, which states "The mission of the Quincy Catholic School system is to form the next generation of Catholic disciples of Christ, in communion with families and parishes, through spiritual growth and academic excellence." Peace be with you!
