A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Dante offers consolation to souls condemned for envy, Hippolyte Flandrin (1809-1864)

Envy is one of those sins that we all know, but perhaps can't really explain well. Most will say that envy has to do with wanting and desiring a good that belongs to another. "I want to drive a car like that." "I wish I had a job that paid that kind of salary." But envy is not limited to worldly goods— one can be envious of talents, of relationships, of wealth, of virtue... of any human quality of excellence. Ultimately envy is different than jealousy. Jealousy is the raw desire for the goods belonging to another. Envy takes it one step further. Envy takes sadness in the lack of that good and the holding of that good by another. This is truly demonic, as when one is envious, one chooses not to 'count their blessings' but to 'count someone else's blessings' and make a judgement against God's generosity and mercy.

In Dante's Inferno, those who were in hell due to the sin of envy were punished by having their eyes sewn shut with iron wire. It is through the eyes that we glance at the goods belonging to others. Cain looked upon Abel and his blessings with an 'evil eye'. St. Gregory the Great says that from the "inward plague" of envy "comes hatred, gossip, detraction, gloating over our neighbor's hard luck and being sore at his success." The contemporary term schadenfreude comes to us from German and was made famous in an interview of the author Joshua Halberstam on Oprah in the mid-90's following the release of his book, Everyday Ethics. "Schadenfreude" describes the secret joy one has in seeing someone else fail. Jesus was handed over for crucifixion out of envy from the chief priests and the elders. Louis of Grenada writes that the crime of Satan is not impurity or theft, but the envious desire to snare humanity in an imitation of his own rebellion against the goodness of God. Envy corrodes the heart, weakens understanding, destroys peace in the soul and condemns us to melancholy and an intolerable existence. Fr. John Hardon, SJ remarked that envy is the only vice that does not bring pleasure to the sinner.

When we envy, we doubt how much we are loved by God and how generous his blessings are. Like so many other sins, the only thing that can heal envy is love. Only with love can our hearts be turned into greater trust in God's will for our lives.

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

It is time to identify candidates who would be interested in becoming Catholic by way of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. How do we get new Catholics to join the Church? We must personally welcome them and mentor them in the faith! Is this the year for your spouse? Your son/daughter-in-law? Your parent(s)? Your neighbor or colleague at work? We would like to get to know them and help them to get to know the Church. We also would like to accommodate those who would like refresher course on their Catholic Faith, especially those who might have missed Confirmation and would like to receive the Sacrament in the coming year. We are also looking for team members to help present the programming and mentor our candidates. Please contact Tera Smith at the parish office (217-222-5996) for more information and to get started on the adventure of becoming Catholic!

"America needs a saint, an American saint. After three hundred years of Catholic life [as of 1951], we cannot point to one saint who was born in this great land, who was educated in our schools, and showed in crisis how an American Catholic can relive the life of Christ crucified. We have the greatest Catholic school system in the world, the widest forms of charity work, the most compact army of teachers and religious, but the niches of our churches are empty... We must give to the world more than our gifts. We ought also to present it with a saint — a saint to prove we are not as materialistic as some believe; a saint who would be a priest, and preferably a bishop, to prove that sanctity in a nation must begin with the bishops." — Ven. Fulton Sheen [since 1951, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (1975), St. Catherine Drexel (2000), and St. Kateri Tekawitha (2015), all natives to the United States, have been canonized. Fulton Sheen was consecrated bishop in 1951 and is to be proclaimed 'Blessed' on September 24 this week.]

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Eucharistic Adoration After St. Dominic School Mass

Approximately once per month on Wednesday after St. Dominic School Mass, Father Tom begins Eucharistic Adoration for our school. Each Kindergarten through 8th-grade class is scheduled for some quiet prayer time for Eucharistic Adoration throughout the day. As the 7th-grade class left the chapel, they showed their love and reverence for the presence of Jesus by kneeling at the altar. Our students learn how to love God and others by setting aside their own self-interests, and do what they prayerfully believe God is calling them to do. We noticed the 7th-graders as they experienced the FAITHFULNESS fruit of the Holy Spirit during Eucharistic Adoration at St. Dominic School, where Holy Moments happen every day.

Centennial Campaign Feasibility Study Survey:

Here's your sign! We are asking each household to participate in our parish feasibility study survey in anticipation of our participation in the Centennial Campaign. We need to get the message out about the projects we are looking to perform, and gauge parishioner interest and support. We are not seeking donations at this time, but we want to hear what you think so that we can sharpen our 'case for support' and present a complete project package after the first of the year.

Thank you!
