Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 20, 2026

Isaiah 55:6-9; Philippians 1:20c-24,27a;
Matthew 20:1-16a

Remember that a parable is a riddle, a story with an intriguing or strange twist. Parables usually have something out-of-the-ordinary or unexpected. The conclusion of today's parable is very unexpected: Those who are hired late in the day get the same pay as those who worked all day long!

This is not a lesson on social justice; it is a lesson on God's gracious invitation to all people to be saved. God called the Hebrews (Israelites, Jews) to be his special people; he called them early. He called the Gentiles (non-Jews) last of all. But he offers all the reward of eternal life.

Very likely, Matthew wrote this parable in the context of his Church community in which there were many Jewish Christians. They were "first," so they thought that they should always have the place of honor and prestige – the important posts in the Church.

The parable reminds everyone that we are equal in God's eyes; God is generous to all; those who come last will enjoy the same joy as those who enter first; no one can claim a special place from God.

The first reading reminds us that God's ways are not like our ways. We operate on the profit motive and on merit. God operates out of his infinite lovingkindness and mercy. God is merciful to all.

Today we begin using Philippians as our first reading. This is a friendly letter written by Paul from his imprisonment at Ephesus around 58 A.D. He thanks the Philippians for sending him aid. He is not discouraged over his imprisonment; he says that it does not matter where he is – alive or dead – as long as he serves the Lord.

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

“Are you envious because I am generous? Thus, the last will be first and the first will be last.” Matthew 10:16.

The Gospel of St. Matthew is a good follow-up to last week's theme of revenge, the deadliest of all sins. Here again, the envy felt by those who labored in the hot sun all day was humanly justifiable. Yet, Jesus turned common wisdom upside-down. “Man's way is not God's way.” (Isaiah 55:8-9) How would you have responded in a similar situation. Your answer will give you insight into your own spiritual health. Amen.

FRAUDULANT TEXT AND EMAIL MESSAGES FROM FR. DAN Sadly, round #3 of the latest fraudulent texts using Fr. Dan's name visited many parishioners. Just a reminder, I will never text or email you asking for money, gift cards, etc. When you receive these texts or email, please REPORT IT AS SPAM and then BLOCK and DELETE it. Err on the side of caution. If you are not sure, please call the parish office to verify.

FR. DAN'S BROTHER ON THE MEND Thank you for all the prayers for my younger brother Ray. They are greatly appreciated. He remains at his home and is on the mend and making many visits to his new physicians.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS These are available at ALL Masses. The Priest and Deacon will have Low Gluten Hosts with them in their respective Communion Lines.

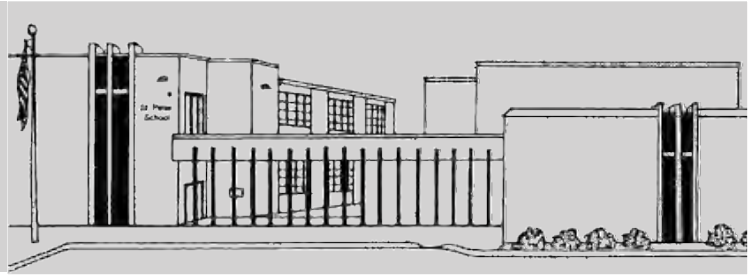

PRIEST CONVOCATION (September 21-24) Annually Bishop Paprocki calls together the priests of the diocese for this event. It is filled with prayer, comradery and this year features an update on the new Order of Christian Initiation and Bishop Fulton Sheen being Beatified at the Dome in St. Louis. All diocesan priests are expected to attend. Senior priests and religious priests (Franciscans) attend at will. Fr. Leo and our Franciscan priests will be celebrating Masses in my absence.

FACILITY UPDATES The Elevator corridor is under construction. The Elevator itself should be finished by the end of the week. The connecting passage into Seton Hall is still under construction and should be finished in the next couple weeks. This will allow the opening of a major Entry/Exit to the new addition. Seton Hall itself will be under construction through the first of the year. The new roof on Seton Hall has been completed. Also, the new Playground will be delivered this week and then assembly can begin.

TOUR / OPEN HOUSE OF NEW ADDITION Once completed we will have an Open House. Most probably on a weekend after each of the Masses. We will keep you updated on the progress and the Open House.

May God's most Holy Spirit continue to lead and guide us!
