Ask Father...

Q: Why does the woman in Revelation have birth pains if she is Mary?

A: According to biblical scholars, the woman depicted in Rev 12:2 is the symbolic representation of Israel, from whom the messiah is born (cf. v. 5); the twelve stars thus refer to the twelve tribes (cf. v. 1). Patristic and medieval Christian interpreters most often saw her to be Mary the mother of Jesus, or sometimes the church. In either case, the physical "birth pangs" are not Israel's or Mary's per se, but are tied to the "sufferings" of God's people before their redemption.

The "birth pangs" may also refer to the childbirth of Mary on Calvary, where she is constituted "truly the mother of the members of Christ," as St. Augustine affirms (cf. De S. Virginitate. 6: PL 40, 399). Our Lady "is to be ascribed a double childbirth: one natural and virginal, by which, without pain or injury of any kind, she begot the Son of God, the physical Christ; the other spiritual, by means of which on Calvary, uniting her sufferings to those of the Redeemer she begot the Mystical Body of Christ." (Fr. Stefano Manelli, F.I.).

140th Parish Anniversary

On October 4 we will be celebrating 140 years of serving the faithful of Louisburg. All are welcome to attend a Mass at 2 p.m. with Archbishop Naumann and a meal immediately following. If you wish to attend the meal, please RSVP to the office by September 25.

Please note there will not be a 10:30 a.m. Mass that day in order for folks to attend the celebration.
I hope to see you there!

Help Support Uplift

Thank you for your continued generosity to Uplift, a mobile street outreach serving people experiencing homelessness in Kansas City.

The generosity of our parish has been amazing! Three nights a week, four sprinter vans head out with food, clothing, and essential supplies. Uplift typically serves 250-400 people each night and never misses a night. Recently, one of the vans we volunteer in provided food and supplies to 126 people in a single evening.

With colder weather approaching, there is an urgent need for:

- . Men's jeans and pants (sizes 30–36)
- . Tennis or walking shoes
- . Travel and hotel-sized hygiene products.
- . Canned food- pop-top preferred, especially non-condensed soup and fruit
- . Flashlights and headlamps
- . Blankets, tarps and sleeping bags
- . Hand warmers
- . AA and AAA batteries

A collection bin is located in the back of the church for your donations. If you prefer to give online, UpLift also maintains an Amazon Wish List on its website, uplift.org.

"When you give, it's as if you're out on the streets with us, bringing meals, supplies and hope to those who need it most"

Thank you for helping bring food, warmth, dignity and hope to our neighbors in need.
