Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 27, 2026

Ezekiel 18:25-28; Philippians 2:1-11 or 2: 1-5;
Matthew 21:28-32

In the context of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus has taught a very high code of morality for his followers in the sermon on the church. He then taught (Matthew 19:16-26) that we will not be judged merely on the commandments; rather we shall be judged on how well we used our talents and abilities for the glory of God.

This infuriated many of the leaders of the Jewish people. They thought that they had a specially privileged position since they were God's first choice. After Jesus enters Jerusalem in the last week of his life, he reminds them that doing is more important than talking.

He tells the parable of the two sons. The Old Testament reading parallels the Gospel: Those who turn away from evil and do good will be saved; those who belong to the "inner circle" will not be saved unless their deeds are righteous.

But the most important lesson of today's Mass is the second reading. The last part of the second reading was an ancient Christian hymn before Paul used it in his Letter to the Philippians in 55 A.D.

We are called to have the same attitude of Christ. He was divine; but he didn't cling to his glory as God. Rather he made himself as nothing. He became man. And he humbled himself even to the death of the cross.

Why? Because he wanted to show that God is not grasping but giving! Because of his emptying, he is exalted above all in the resurrection. We must strive for this attitude of Christ: We must give of ourselves completely if we are to be filled with the glory of Christ. This is the "paschal mystery."

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

“If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing.” Philippians 2:1-5

As we hear all the daily news these days, it is difficult to keep a positive attitude about anything. The saying “garbage in, garbage out” comes to mind. In discussions with parishioners, many say they no longer watch the news. And if they do, they watch very little and try to sift through it, not knowing what is true? Today’s letter from St. Paul to the Philippians gives us some very good news to embrace. Words of solace, love, encouragement and mercy bring joy and unity into hearts starved for the ultimate unity of Oneness in Christ Jesus. The phrase “E Pluribus Unum” (though many we are one) is an essential element of our national democracy. The more we can embrace that unity with our God, our friends and neighbors and in ourselves, the more we can absorb these healing words of St. Paul’s letter to the Philippians.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS These are available at ALL Masses. The Priest and Deacon will have Low Gluten Hosts with them in their respective Communion Lines.

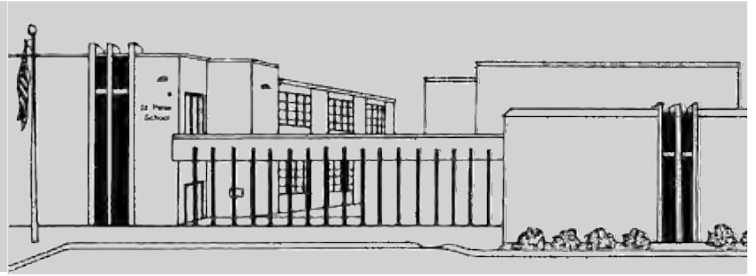

PRIEST CONVOCATION This past week Bishop Paprocki called together the priests of the diocese for this annual event. It was filled with prayer, comradery and this year features an update on the new Order of Christian Initiation, Vocations in our Parish and Bishop Fulton Sheen being Beatified at the Dome in St. Louis. Most of our priests were able to attend some, if not all the convocation this past week. Thank you for your prayers.

FRAUDULANT TEXT AND EMAIL MESSAGES FROM FR. DAN Sadly, round #3 of the latest fraudulent texts using Fr. Dan’s name visited many parishioners. Just a reminder, I will never text or email you asking for money, gift cards, etc. When you receive these texts or email, please REPORT IT AS SPAM and then BLOCK and DELETE it. Err on the side of caution. If you are not sure, please call the parish office to verify.

FACILITY UPDATES The Elevator corridor and entryway are still under construction. To alleviate the overcrowding of the Church & School (west) morning student dropoff, we have made the Cafeteria Door underneath the Skywalk available for entry. A teacher will be at that door each morning. Parents are encouraged to use the Seton Hall circular drop off. Hopefully this will enhance the safety of our students.

May God’s most Holy Spirit continue to lead and guide us!

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Saint Paul reminds us, "As a body is one though it has many parts . . . so also Christ" (1 Cor 12:12). This weekend, our diocese participates in the Black and Indian Mission Collection, established by the bishops of the United States in 1884 to support the Church's missionary work among African American and Native American Catholics. Today, the collection supports evangelization and pastoral ministry among African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities throughout our country.

The Black and Indian Mission Office describes this work as guided by the "missionary spirit of Saint Katharine Drexel." Saint Katharine's profound devotion to the Eucharist moved her to action. She founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament and devoted her life and considerable resources to establishing Catholic schools and missions. She knew that proclaiming Jesus Christ requires more than words. It requires forming disciples, teaching the faith, sustaining Catholic communities, and bringing people to Christ through the sacraments.

That mission continues today. Your gifts support Catholic schools and religious education, strengthen parishes, form catechists and evangelizers, and foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

I ask you to prayerfully consider supporting this collection. Following the example of Saint Katharine Drexel, may we generously help build up the Body of Christ and proclaim the Gospel to all nations.

Thank you for your generous support. May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki
