Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 6, 2026

Ezekiel 33:7-9; Romans 13:8-10;
Matthew 18:15-20

Today and next Sunday, our Gospel selection is taken from the third of Jesus' five great sermons in Matthew, from the Sermon on the Church. This sermon tells of the relationships which should characterize members of the Church.

Today, the Lord tells us that we must be humble enough to offer fraternal correction privately. It is easy to gossip about another person's faults. But Christians are called to do something about them.

We must recognize our own frailty and failures, while at the same time pointing out another person's faults privately. If this does not work, then we take another person with us, but still we keep it private. If this fails, we submit the problem to the community of faith.

The reading concludes with the spiritual power of the community: Whatever it binds is bound. Whenever the community unites in prayer, the Lord will grant it. Wherever two or three are gathered in his name, he is with them.

The other two readings complement the Gospel. We are called to share in the prophetic ministry: this means that we must not keep silence, but must prudently warn others of sin. All this must be done in charity.

The second reading tells us that our only debt to each other must be the debt of loving. We must love our neighbor as ourselves.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 6, 2026

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

"Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law." Romans 13:8

St. Paul's letter to the people of Rome is the final discourse of St. Paul's writings. These letters are the pinnacle of his teachings and the basis for most of our theology. St. Paul was martyred around the age of sixty-seven in Rome. He reemphasizes to the people of Rome the quintessential messages and thoughts of Jesus Christ. The core of this is "Love one another as I have loved you." (John 13:34) This is one very simple and direct message that anyone can understand and remember! Can you remember this? Have you lived this? Can you live this more intentionally?

ST PETER PARISH PICNIC The picnic was a great success! It brought our parish family together as good stewards of God's gifts to each of us. As we offered these gifts back to God through our times and talents, our parish family bonded even more closely. Thank you to each of you who supported this Picnic in many different ways. It is because of each of YOU, this Body of Christ, called St. Peter Parish, continues to grow and flourish. God Bless All Of You!

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS These are available at ALL Masses. The Priest and Deacon will have Low Gluten Hosts with them in their respective Communion Lines.

FACILITY UPDATES Yes, School is open and our facilities continue to be updated and completed all at the same time and this has been accomplished in a very safe and thoughtful manner by everyone involved. Here is an update of what has been happening. The installation of the Elevator continues. The Kitchen systems continue to be a work in progress as well as the finishing of the entire basement level of the new facility. Seton Hall upgrades continue also. We are heading in the correct direction, but slowly. Your support and patience is appreciated.

TOUR / OPEN HOUSE OF NEW SCHOOL ADDITION This past Thursday was our "Curriculum Night" for Parents and Students. All of the Parents were able to tour the completed parts of the new addition. Once the entire facility is finished, we will have an open house scheduled for everyone! Most probably on a weekend after each of the Masses. We will keep you updated on the progress and the Open House.

VISA DENIED Unfortunately we received news that Fr. Gerald's Visa was denied. Thus, our diocesan leadership will continue to address this. Until that time, we will continue as we have been with One priest (Fr. Dan) and area priests supporting the Sacraments (Mass, Reconciliation, Baptisms, Funerals, etc.) as best we can. Please be patient and continue to pray for vocations.

May God's most Holy Spirit continue to lead and guide us!
