October 11, 2026—Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In Matthew 22, Jesus proposes a two-in-one parable about a wedding feast to the chief priests and elders. This parable announces that the leaders of Israel have refused the invitation to the King's Son's wedding, calling judgment upon themselves. This is an unnerving message when we consider that a generation later, the Temple was destroyed—as if fulfilling prophecy that the King would set their city on fire. In place of the invited guests, servants collected from the highways “all that you might find,” both good and bad alike, that they may share in the King's joy.

This first part of the parable critiques the Jewish leadership, who found themselves replaced by those considered ‘lesser’ in worthiness. It warns us that indifference towards God's invitation brings consequences. Those who declined the invitation were going to their farms and businesses. These were not inherently bad people, but they placed everyday concerns over the divine invitation to the banquet. Those who were slow to accept God's grace, who otherwise considered themselves “chosen” and “elect”, lost divine favor to those gathered from the highways who had no special claim to God's grace, but responded to the invitation. This warning remains valid for baptized Christians today who make their way about a dark, noisy, distracting world, all the while failing to recognize the dignity in their calling to be heirs to the Kingdom.

But the second part of the parable raises the stakes even higher. A man welcomed graciously by the King was singled out and excluded for not wearing a wedding garment. While God's grace comes completely freely, it imposes responsibilities. A person cannot live as they did before meeting Christ; the sinner must conform his life to Christ and become a saint. Furthermore, this is not simply a lesson about dressing respectfully for church. What matters most are the inner dispositions of mind and soul that we ‘wear’—the garments of faith and reverence. Honest worship cannot take place in a heart closed off to the responsibility grace imposes, or one unwilling to accept the help necessary to become worthy.

We are all humble beggars at the table of God's grace. When that grace is welcomed into the soul and given space to take hold of our entire being, God's grace holds the transformative power to turn even beggars into glorious heirs of the Kingdom.

Attention Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion the diocesan commissions for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are expiring for all ministers in St. Anthony parish and St. Dominic School. We need to petition the bishop to renew these commissions. In order to do this renewal, pastors are required to provide instruction to ministers and insure that they meet the essential requirements to carry out their ministry. In order to be commissioned, ministers need to be baptized, confirmed Catholics in good standing and ‘exemplary’ in Christian character. They must be at least 16 years old, by policy of the Diocese of Springfield (405.1.2) They may not be bound by canonical penalty, and if married, it must be a valid marriage in the church. Finally, as diocesan policy, each Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion must have completed appropriate safe environment training and screening.

We are going to review the instructions and answer questions for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion on the weekend of October 17-18, between the weekend Masses: about 5:15 p.m. on Saturday and 9:15 a.m. on Sunday. We need each minister who would like to be renewed to be present for one of these sessions. If you are unable to attend, please inform the office and a follow-up will be held on the weekend of October 31-November 1.

This is also the opportunity for new ministers to be trained and commissioned, and also the opportunity for those who would be willing to take communion to the sick and homebound to step forward. We are planning to formally commission our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at Mass over the weekend of October 31-November 1. We appreciate the ministry of those who come forward to offer the Body of Christ to the faithful.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary

Did you know the Dominican Order has always had a great love for the Rosary? Our Lady told St. Dominic to spread devotion to the Holy Rosary to save souls. Dominican missionaries brought it to every corner of the world. St. Rose, St. Martin, and St. Juan, like all of the Dominicans, each wore the rosary all the time and prayed it often. Our seventh-grade class is also spreading the October devotion of the Holy Rosary at our school.

The next stop our school is visiting on our virtual pilgrimage this year is in Peru, South America. The Convent of St. Dominic in Lima, Peru is also called the Convent of the Holy Rosary and is the headquarters of the Dominican Order in Peru. Three great Dominican saints of the sixteenth century — St. Rose of Lima, St. Martin de Porres, and St. Juan Macias are buried here. In Peru, seventy-six percent of the population is Catholic and most people speak Spanish.

Our Lady of the Rosary,
Pray
for Us

If you or a loved one is hospitalized...

Please call the parish office if you or a loved one goes to the hospital, even if it is for a short stay.

Blessing Hospital, because of its new computer system, cannot tell clergy who from their parishes or congregations is in the hospital.

Secondly, if you are going to be a patient at the hospital, please tell the hospital staff that you are a Catholic and your place of worship is St. Anthony parish.

The hospital personnel do not always ask the question and the faith information did not transfer over when patient records were transferred to the new system.

Also, please call the parish office if you are hospitalized in order that Father Tom and Deacon Harry are aware you are in the hospital.
