Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OCTOBER 11, 2020

Isaiah 25:6-10a; Philippians 4:12-14,19-20;
Matthew 22:1-14 or 22: 1-10

In the Bible, heaven is often described as a great banquet, a feast in which there is plenty of food and drink for everyone. Although Isaiah knew little about heaven, he thought of paradise in these terms.

He looked forward to a time when all people would be united in peace, when there would be no death or suffering, and when everyone would have plenty of food and drink. This is what we call the "Messianic Hope." Jewish tradition thought that this hope would be fulfilled when the Messiah came.

Jesus uses a banquet parable to describe salvation or heaven. The parable was told against the Pharisees. They thought that the only ones to be saved were righteous Jews who kept all 613 precepts of the Law of Moses.

In the parable, these are the ones who refuse the invitation of the king. The king invites them again and again. This refers to the prophets whom the Lord sent. But they ignored his invitation and abused his messengers.

The king then invites all others to the banquet. This refers to the Gentiles, to us, to those who are not God's first choice. It is a teaching of our Catholic faith that God invites everyone to salvation, and that he gives sufficient grace to everyone to be saved.

The longer form of the Gospel adds a corollary to this, however. Everyone is expected to change his life. The parable says that someone was not properly dressed. He was willing to accept the invitation, but not willing to change his ways. He was cast outside.

God in his lovingkindness has invited us to salvation. But we must respond to his invitation by conversion of heart. Those who refuse will be outside with those who ignored the invitation in the first place.

In the second reading, Paul tells us that we should learn how to cope amid all circumstances of life. Somehow, God will see us through. He will supply our needs. He is the source of our strength.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 11, 2026

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

"The servants went out into the streets and gathered everyone they found, bad and good alike, and the wedding hall was filled with guests for the son of the king." Matthew 21:1-14

During "covid time" many church events needed to be postponed or canceled. This was most painful for families who lost loved ones and those with wedding plans. Many families with weddings decided to forgo a large wedding and have a small simple wedding with less than 50 attending due to covid rules. Though it was painful it was possible. This most recent historical event may give you some insight into the King's dismay and anger in today's Gospel from St. Matthew.

VOCATION PICTURES IN THE NARTHEX Have you noticed all the Vocation Photos in the Narthex? Our own Andrew Bilgri from St. Peter is one of our Seminarians for the Diocese. Please look around the Narthex and pick out maybe one or two seminarians. Take a picture of him and then send him a note of encouragement and prayers. Send it to the Seminary he is attending. Just check online for the address.

MORE VOCATION EVENTS Also, Deacon Sunday is this Sunday on October 11. Please keep our Deacons, Bob Lundberg and Jeff Wolf in your prayers and feel free to send them a card of appreciation.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS These are available at ALL Masses. The Priest and Deacon will have Low Gluten Hosts with them in their respective Communion Lines.

CONSTRUCTION UPDATES, THREE PROJECTS

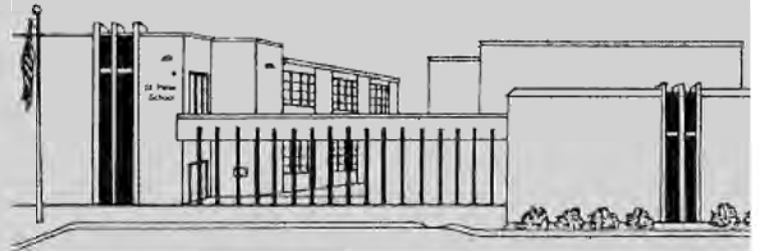

THE NEW ADDITION We continue to make progress. Currently the main hold up is the certification of the Elevator in the New Addition. It serves the 6 classrooms on the top floor, the cafeteria on the middle floor and the storage area on the lower floor. This company is in Chicago. Next to the elevator is the stairwell which serves all three levels and connects the New Addition to Seton Hall. This entryway should be usable within the next week or so, allowing for a secure entryway into the New Addition and Seton Hall.

SETON HALL has a beautiful new roof. The heating and air conditioning had to be relocated, allowing for the secure entryway into Seton Hall. The bathrooms are being retrofitted for pre-school classes. Seton Hall should be completed around Christmas.

FROM CHURCH CAFETERIA TO PARISH CENTER The much needed and long hoped for Parish Center can be moving forward in January 2027. It consists of: 1. Upgrading the electrical system. 2. Upgrading the same structural layout of three meeting rooms. 3. The upgrading of the current large gathering space. 4. The upgrading of the restrooms.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We are made for mission.

Before ascending to His Father, Jesus commanded His disciples to "go and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). That command belongs not only to missionaries who travel to distant lands, but to every baptized Catholic.

On October 18, World Mission Sunday, Catholics throughout the world will unite in prayer and sacrifice for this great work of the Church. This year marks the 100th World Mission Day, with the theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV, "One in Christ, united in mission."

Our diocese itself owes much to generations of missionaries who brought the Catholic faith to Illinois. Today, we have the opportunity to help carry that same faith to places where the Church is too young, too poor, or too persecuted to support herself. Our gifts help provide priests, catechists, churches, schools, and the resources necessary to proclaim Jesus Christ and celebrate the sacraments.

I ask you to pray for our missionaries and persecuted brothers and sisters in Christ and to give generously on World Mission Sunday. In doing so, we answer Christ's call to share the Gospel with all nations.

May God reward you for your generosity and bless the missionary work of His Church.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki
