Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OCTOBER 25, 2020

Exodus 22:20-26; 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10;
Matthew 22: 34-40

At the time of Jesus, Pharisees held that the ultimate self-revelation of God was the Torah. The Torah was eternal, unchangeable, and the way of salvation. If a person kept the Torah, he would find life.

They distinguished 613 precepts or laws in the Torah. Although the Torah was eternal, it was revealed to Moses in time, on Mt. Sinai. But the elders held that not all precepts were equal; some were “heavy” and some were “light.” So they asked Jesus what was the most important precept in the Torah.

Jesus quoted Deuteronomy 6:5 (Love God above all). And then he added Leviticus 19:18 as a co-equal precept (Love your neighbor as yourself). Jesus was the first person to put these two laws together and make them different sides of the same coin.

The first reading in its details is irrelevant to modern life. But it instructs us that our love of neighbor must be practical and concrete.

Too many people talk a good game of “care and compassion,” but never do anything. If we say we love our neighbor, we must show it by our deeds.

In the second reading, Paul uses good psychology in complimenting the Thessalonians on their faith and constancy. If we want to win people to our viewpoint, we do not mount a frontal attack or verbal broadside. Honey attracts more flies than vinegar.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 25, 2026

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

"The Pharisees tested Jesus and asked, 'which is the greatest commandment. He replied that you shall love the Lord, your God with all your heart, soul and mind and love your neighbor as yourself.'" Matthew 22:34-40

Jesus' answer cuts to the chase. No guessing is needed here. Yet, why is it that everything still seems so complicated and multi-faceted? Simply said, that is the nature of darkness and evil. As you prepare to vote please investigate the issues and candidates' perspective with prayerful consideration. Please consult the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishop's website. Vote with a well-informed conscience. Then let God do the rest!

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS These are available at ALL Masses. The Priest and Deacon will have Low Gluten Hosts with them in their respective Communion Lines.

WELCOME BACK FR. ZACH SAMPLES Fr. Zach is here this weekend at three of the Masses. He had a "free" weekend and thought of St. Peters! How blessed we are! Also, this gives Fr. Dan a chance for a fall weekend away. Fr. Dan returns Monday night, October 26.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE MONDAY NOVEMBER 2 AT 6:30 p.m. A special Mass is being offered to pray for our loved ones, especially those who have passed away during this past year. There will be a special candle presentation for these families and a reception afterwards. All are welcome to come and pray for all loved ones who are held in the loving arms of our Lord and Saviour, Christ Jesus.

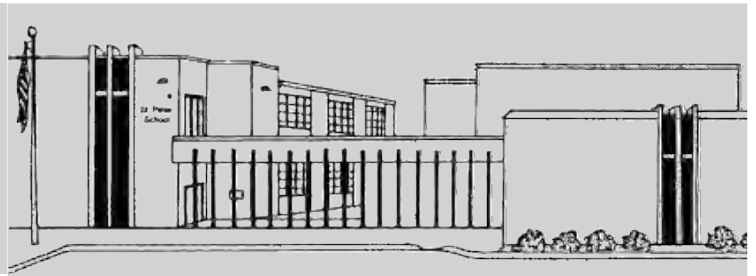

CONSTRUCTION UPDATES (October 21, 2026), THREE PROJECTS

Great progress has been made this past week at Seton Hall. Most of the flooring is completely installed. The secure entryway into the new addition is completed and in use. The Elevator inspection is on Monday (October 26). Hopefully we will receive a "Green Light" to use it. If so, a tour of the New Addition will be scheduled ASAP! This past week we met and began formal discussions for the updating of the lower church level. It will be transformed into a much needed and long-awaited Parish Center. We are looking at upgrades to the electrical system, restrooms, all three classrooms, new flooring and an Adult Conference area (former cafeteria). The amount of $500,000 has been set aside for this part of the "Upon This Rock" capital campaign.

FINANCE COUNCIL MONTHLY MEETINGS Our Finance Council met this past Wednesday, October 21, 2026. (3rd Wednesday of the month). Due to the three construction projects and a new pastor and the Quincy Catholic School system we are meeting monthly now to make sure all elements of our finances and projects are aligned with one another.

May the Most Holy Spirit Continue to Guide Us & Bless Us!
