Help Support Uplift

Thank you for your continued generosity to Uplift, a mobile street outreach serving people experiencing homelessness in Kansas City.

The generosity of our parish has been amazing! Three nights a week, four sprinter vans head out with food, clothing, and essential supplies. Uplift typically serves 250-400 people each night and never misses a night. Recently, one of the vans we volunteer in provided food and supplies to 126 people in a single evening.

With colder weather approaching, there is an urgent need for:

- . Men's jeans and pants (sizes 30–36)
- . Tennis or walking shoes
- . Travel and hotel-sized hygiene products.
- . Canned food- pop-top preferred, especially non-condensed soup and fruit
- . Flashlights and headlamps
- . Blankets, tarps and sleeping bags
- . Hand warmers
- . AA and AAA batteries

A collection bin is located in the back of the church for your donations. If you prefer to give online, UpLift also maintains an Amazon Wish List on its website, uplift.org.

"When you give, it's as if you're out on the streets with us, bringing meals, supplies and hope to those who need it most"

Thank you for helping bring food, warmth, dignity and hope to our neighbors in need.

Rosary ~ The Rosary starts at 7:30 a.m. on Sunday. This allows for its completion by 7:50 a.m.

Q: My niece is getting married- to another woman. What do I do? I love my niece and don't want to antagonize the family. Do I go to the wedding? Do I go to the reception? Do I do any celebrating?

A: This question posed many challenges and creates deep internal conflict for those who wish to be loyal to their family and at the same time to the teachings of the Church. So, the question is: Can one show love and respect without compromising ones faith?

The Catholic Church teaches that marriage is an exclusive union between one man and one woman. The Church also declares that we should treat those with same-sex attraction with dignity and respect.

One should always begin with "prayer, to your personal prayer, to weigh things calmly, serenely, dispassionately, the pros and cons of this participation."

"The cons are clear: It can cause scandal and give the impression that you're blessing or agreeing with two people of the same sex getting married.... On the other hand, it is necessary to assess whether this break in the relationship, whether this absence at the ceremony would be interpreted as totally breaking off relations, which would prevent these people from coming closer to communion with God in the near future or later on."

"If participation can be avoided, it's better, by explaining the reasons to the people, in this case to the contracting parties, why it goes against a persons conscience and beliefs," but "if that attitude is going to cause great harm, a total break, a complete breakup of family life, exceptions can be considered" but not necessarily followed.
