October 4, 2026—Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In these last several weeks the parables from Matthew settle into a common pattern: God's grace is revealed, there is a human response, and then there is a divine accounting for that response. We learn that living as "Kingdom People" is not about simply receiving the reward, as much as it is about living the Kingdom, even now in our midst.

(27th Sunday) This week, the vineyard is entrusted to the servants. They refuse to deliver the harvest and they kill the son. "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the harvest at the proper times." (Mt 21: 41)

(28th Sunday) Next week, the king hosts a feast. Most take the invitation with indifference, refusal, or distraction. Thereupon, the king throws open the doors to those along the 'highways and byways'. A man enters without being dressed and is put out. "Many are invited, but few are chosen" (Mt 22: 14).

(32nd Sunday) After All Saints, we hear of the Ten Virgins waiting for the bridegroom in anticipation of coming into the wedding feast. Some are wise and prepared, others are foolish and are locked out. "The door was locked. Afterwards [the foolish] virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply 'Amen I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore stay awake!" (Mt 25: 10ff)

(33rd Sunday) Finally a man went on a journey and entrusted his possessions to his servants. Some invested the wealth, while one buried it, afraid of losing it. When the master returned, the one talent was buried was given to the servants who had made a profit and the lazy servant was dismissed. "For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. Throw this useless servant into the darkness outside where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth!" (Mt 25: 29-30)

In each case, Jesus demonstrates that the grace is freely, generously given from God. But grace creates relationship with the giver and imposes certain responsibilities. Such is the kingdom of God. The servants and the vineyard owner have a lease contract, and the owner expects his share of the harvest. The king and bridegroom send invitations to a feast and the king expects diligence in accepting and keeping that invitation. The master entrusts wealth to his servants and the master expects a return on his investments. This is the essence of stewardship: God gives generously, we receive diligently, we return with increase. While these gifts of grace are supernatural, they are not abstract. They directly impact how we practically, concretely live our lives on earth.

In between these parables, we have two (plus one hidden) non-parable weekends... "Render unto Caesar what is Caesar's, render to God that which is God's" (Mt 22:21) "Love the Lord your God with all your whole heart, soul, and mind... Love your neighbor as yourself." (Mt 22L 37, 39). The gospel that is missing because of All Saints demands, "Call no one father, for you have one father who is in heaven." (Mt 23: 9)

These gospels ask, where does our allegiance, where do we place our love? Are we attentive to the things of God and his precious ones, or are we worried about wealth, titles, and the righteousness of virtue signaling? Are we ready to accept the Kingdom when it is revealed? Are we going to be diligent in watching and waiting and responding? Do we recognize our own poverty and our own need for God?

All Saints takes us back to the Beatitudes in the Gospel of Matthew, which we heard back in February. This is what "Kingdom People" look like... the poor in spirit, the merciful, the clean of heart, the peacemakers, those who suffer. God alone is their inheritance and their hope: "theirs is the Kingdom of heaven!" (Mt 5) Finally, the Gospel from Christ the King reminds us that Christ is found in our neighbor in need of our love: "whatsoever you do to the least... you did unto me!" (Mt 25: 45)

We live in a world flooded with God's grace. If we drink deeply, receiving that grace and letting it transform our lives, we can be confident that when the King returns, we will be among the chosen flock (Mt 25: 33).

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Seventh Grade Leaders Teach The Holy Rosary

During the month of October at Morning Assembly, our seventh-grade leaders along with their teacher, Mrs. Jen Dyer, will teach our Kindergarten through eighth-grade school to pray for the monthly devotion of our Catholic Church, which is The Holy Rosary. We will be reminded that because Mary is the mother of God, we ask her to pray for us and lead us to her Son, Jesus. One of the most important ways we do this is by praying the Rosary. As we pray the Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Glory Be with our lips, we meditate on important holy moments in the life of Jesus in our hearts and minds. It's as if Mary holds our hands and leads us on a walk through the Gospels. Our seventh-grade class also provides a lesson on the virtue of the week, including orderliness, trustworthiness, courtesy, foresight, and circumspection.

A Night Worth Celebrating
SUPPORTING CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Your support represents far more than a financial contribution. It is a meaningful investment in the education, opportunities, and future of the students in our community.

Because of generous people like you, we are able to provide resources and support that can make a lasting difference in the lives of local students and their schools. Your generosity helps move our mission forward and allows Antlers for Academics to continue building opportunities for students to learn, grow, and succeed.

If you or a loved one is hospitalized...

Please call the parish office if you or a loved one goes to the hospital, even if it is for a short stay.

Blessing Hospital, because of its new computer system, cannot tell clergy who from their parishes or congregations is in the hospital.

Secondly, if you are going to be a patient at the hospital, please tell the hospital staff that you are a Catholic and your place of worship is St. Anthony parish.

The hospital personnel do not always ask the question and the faith information did not transfer over when patient records were transferred to the new system.

Also, please call the parish office if you are hospitalized in order that Father Tom and Deacon Harry are aware you are in the hospital.

Need Keys Returned

If you have received keys to be able to use our facility for an event, etc. please make sure that you return them. We have several keys missing.

QUINCY CATHOLIC SCHOOL CHESS CLUB

Into Great Silence

Nestled deep in the postcard-perfect French Alps, the Grande Chartreuse is considered one of the world's most ascetic monasteries. In 1984, German filmmaker Philip Gröning wrote to the Carthusian order for permission to make a documentary about them. They said they would get back to him. Sixteen years later, they were ready.
