Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

OCTOBER 4, 2026

Isaiah 5:1-7; Philippians 4:6-9;

Matthew 21:33-43

The context of today's Gospel is after Jesus' entry into Jerusalem in the last days of his life. People greeted him enthusiastically on Palm Sunday; but then they found out that he was going to be a humble Messiah – not the one they expected.

Jesus cleansed the Temple, overturning the tables of the buyers and sellers; thus he alienated them – and the high priest who controlled them. Last week, he told the parable of the two sons; obviously the elders and scribes realized that he was talking about them. Today he tells the parable of the vineyard. This is a variation on the vineyard parable in the first reading.

The vineyard is Israel. God had invested a lot in his people; he expected that they would bear good fruit. Instead, the vineyard produced "wild" grapes. (A better translation would be: "rotten, stinking grapes.")

There are several plays-on-words in the original language: "Judgment" is Mizpah in Hebrew; "Violence" is Mizpat. "Justice" is Zadiqqah; "Outcry" is Za'aqqah. The variation of the parable in the Gospel makes it vivid: They killed the messengers and finally the Son who was heir.

The Gospel parable says that the kingdom of God will be taken from the Jews and given to a people who will yield a rich harvest. We might ask ourselves if we yield this rich harvest. Are we so zealous for the faith that we live it and try to share it with others? What will God say about our quietism and indifference to life issues? To evangelism? To missionary efforts? To promiscuity and violence?

In the second reading, we are told not to worry, to be a people of peace. Sad to say, some take this to mean that they can be indifferent. Let us pray that we shall show our faith in our public life.

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

"I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen." Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20.

St. Paul's letter to the Philippians continues with the Good News of Christ Jesus. Last week we heard about living virtuously in a harsh world. This week we learn the secret of being well fed or hungry. Yes, when we put our trust in Christ Jesus, he gives us the strength when needed and as needed. He knows us so well and loves us so much because He is goodness incarnate!

VOCATION PICTURES IN THE NARTHEX Have you noticed all the Vocation Photos in the Narthex? We just received our updated poster that lists 19 young men studying for the priesthood in our diocese. And guess what? One of them is from St. Peter Church here in Quincy. You may know him. His name is Andrew Bilgri and he is studying at Mundelein Seminary. You may also recognize Joseph Tuttle who was here at St. Peter Church for six weeks this summer. He is attending St. Meinrad Seminary in Southern Indiana. The Rev. Mr. Padrick Mulligan is a transitional Deacon for our diocese, and his home parish is St. Mary's in Edwardsville where I was his pastor. Seminarian Reece Kleinschmidt is also from St. Mary's in Edwardsville. Seminarian Chad Robinson is from my most recent parish St. Agnes, Springfield and is studying at St. Meinrad Seminary. There are many connections here and I can attest to their deep and joyful faith! Please look at these photos and choose one or two men and put them on your daily prayer list and feel free to drop them a card or note.

MORE VOCATION EVENTS Last weekend was Priesthood Sunday. A big THANK YOU to our school children for the cool banners of prayer and support for their pastor this past weekend. In a rare (but not unheard of) turn of events, this pastor (Fr. Dan) was blessed to administer five of the seven sacraments to parishioners in less than 24 hours. The Sacraments of: Baptism, Reconciliation, Eucharist, Anointing of the Sick and Matrimony. All Sacred encounters with Christ Jesus right here at St. Peter Church. Also, Deacon Sunday is the Second Sunday in October (the 11th). Please keep our Deacons, Bob Lundberg and Jeff Wolf in your prayers and feel free to send them a card of appreciation.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS These are available at ALL Masses. The Priest and Deacon will have Low Gluten Hosts with them in their respective Communion Lines.

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION BEGINS After a delayed start due to construction concerns in the School and Church Lower Level we are off to a great start. Thank you to Gina Bergman and Gina Wolf, our coordinators and our Teachers Kathy Obert, Sandy Gallaher, Cindy Archer and Deacon Jeff Wolf. Thank You and God Bless You!

May God's most Holy Spirit continue to lead and guide us!
