Solemnity of All Saints

NOVEMBER 1, 2026

Revelation: 2-4,9-14; 1 John 3:1-3;
Matthew 5:1-12a

Today we celebrate all those countless persons who are in heaven, but who do not have a special "feast day." They are of all kinds and varieties: young and old, intelligent and simple, jolly and reserved, introverted and extroverted, active and contemplative, slim and portly, and so on. They have one thing in common: They loved God above all things and tried to serve him in every aspect of their lives.

Our first reading, from Revelation, shows the scene of heaven; there are countless numbers from every race, nation, people and tongue. They have "washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and made them white." This applies strictly to martyrs who gave their lives for Christ. But it also applies to those who have sacrificed in order to live for him.

The second reading tells us that there is no essential difference between grace and glory. We share God's life here; we shall share it hereafter when we shall be glorified with the glory of Christ's resurrection.

The Gospel is the Beatitudes, the opening words of the first sermon Jesus preached, according to Matthew. The Beatitudes may be considered as the "new value system" which Christians must have.

The Beatitudes may also be considered as the "process of conversion." "Poor in spirit" means "those who realize they need God." This is the first step. Those who "mourn" means those who are sorry for their sins. Realizing our need for God, we must want to turn away from sin. We must hunger and thirst for righteousness, and God will fill us with his grace.

The other Beatitudes flow from this: Mercy will come to those who show mercy; we must be single-hearted; we must seek peace with all people. And we are blessed when we endure suffering for the sake of Christ and the Gospel.

All of us are called to be saints. Today, let us pledge that we shall be loyal to the Lord at all times in order that we may join all the saints in heaven.

All Saints - Solemnity, November 1, 2026

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

"Who can ascend the mountain of the Lord? The One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean, who desires not what is vain." Psalm 24

Around the year 2100 BCE the Ziggurat of Ur (Mesopotamia) was constructed to honor the sky gods. It rivaled the Great Pyramid of Giza built in 2580-2560 in Egypt as tombs for Pharaohs. It was here that the Living God appeared to Abram and Sarah. He promised he would make of them a great nation, more numerous than the stars of the sky. He would be their God, and they would be His people. With acceptance Abram became Abraham, the father of our faith. That promise was kept by God even if this new great nation of Israel should not keep their part of the DEAL and began to worship other gods. And of course, you know the rest of the story of sin, repentance and forgiveness of the Israelites. Through Jesus Christ we have inherited that legacy and unfortunately the cycle of sin, repentance and forgiveness. Out of gratitude "Abraham promised to God a tenth of everything" which is referred to as a Tithe. Genesis 14:20

ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP RENEWAL Each year our stewardship parish renews our commitment and promise to continue to grow closer to the Heart of our God by our increase in tithing until we reach the TEN PERCENT of our blessings. Gifts beyond that are called Sacrificial offering such as our "UPON THIS ROCK" capital campaign. I (Fr. Dan) have been tithing since 1995 during the construction of the new Sacred Heart School in Effingham, where I was the pastor for eleven years. After that wonderful assignment I was transferred across the diocese to St. Peters here in Quincy from 2004-2008. In an extraordinary twist of goodwill by our magnificent God, I have been reassigned to St. Peters again and I am most thrilled to rejoin and reconnect with my Quincy family. Thank you so very much for welcoming me back with open arms and hearts!

CONSTRUCTION UPDATES (November 1, 2026), THREE PROJECTS

THE NEW SCHOOL Other than the Elevator in the New Addition, most of the construction is completed. The elevator still needs a "vent" in the top of the shaft before a "Certificate of Operation" can be issued.

SETON HALL The former "Jr. High Wing" is being retrofitted to serve Pre-K 3- and 4-year-olds beginning in the August 2027-28 School Year. It should be completed in the next couple of weeks.

AROUND JANUARY 1, 2027, Seton Hall will serve as the temporary Parish Center with three of the four classrooms being used by our church groups for the many adult activities which currently utilize the lower level of the church.

PARISH CENTER LOWER LEVEL UPDATE Beginning hopefully in January 2027 both major electrical upgrades and the renovations of the bathrooms will begin. These will be the first upgrades since the original construction of the Church in 1960. Target date for completion is June of 2027.

May the Most Holy Spirit Continue to Guide Us

St. Peter School

Week of November 2-6

A message from Mrs. Reichert

Tradition Continues of Blessing Pets in October

St. Peter School each year has their annual pet blessing in honor of St. Francis of Assisi who loved animals. Fr. Dan was able to bless not only 4-legged animals, but fish, gerbils, lizards and even our 2-legged students. It is a great way to show our appreciation to our pets who give us unconditional love.

The mission of the Quincy Catholic Schools System is to form the next generation of Catholic disciples of Christ, in communion with families and parishes, through spiritual growth and academic vision.

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."
