ASK FATHER COLUMN

Q: What does God and the Church actually think about same-sex love?

A: "… from the beginning the Creator made them male and female…" (Mt 19:4; cf. Gn 1:27) so that they may procreate and be responsible/care for His creation (see Gn 1:28ff) - divine law. Both the man and the woman were created out of love, for each other, and to participate in the natural order of Gods design/law, namely, that the natural sex partner for a man is a woman, and the natural sex partner for a woman is a man.

Homosexual desires, however, are not in themselves sinful. People are subject to a wide variety of sinful desires over which they have little direct control, but these do not become sinful until a person acts upon them, either by acting out the desire or by encouraging the desire and deliberately engaging in fantasies about acting it out. People tempted by homosexual desires, like people tempted by improper heterosexual desires, are not sinning until they act upon those desires in some manner.
