Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

NOVEMBER 22, 2026

Ezekiel 34:11-12,15-17;
1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28; Matthew 25:31-46

What difference does Jesus Christ make in your life? When you are at work or at play, does your faith in him make you any different from others? When you are relaxing with friends, or when you are enjoying recreation, are you any different because you know Christ Jesus?

Jesus Christ should be the meaning of every dimension of our lives. If we truly live for Christ, we don't need to parade it or to always talk "God-speak." People will know we are Christians by the way we live. They will see in our lives the reflection of Jesus Christ. Our deeds will speak louder than our words.

The Feast of Christ the King was instituted in 1925 (in the "Roaring Twenties") when civic and social life was divorced entirely from religion. It was the time of the rise of Totalitarian dictatorships. Among religious people, it was a time of sentimentality without substance.

We claim Christ as our King: All laws of nations must be subject to his moral reign. We claim Christ as our King: We cannot be content with mere sentimentality in our private religion; we are called to profess our faith publicly and boldly.

Our first reading is from Ezekiel. The metaphor of "shepherd" was used for the leaders of Israel, both secular and religious. Unfortunately, during Ezekiel's time, those leaders were corrupt. The Lord says that he himself will become our shepherd, our leader. He will rescue the scattered and lost sheep; he will protect all the sheep of his flock.

The fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians is a great sermon on the resurrection. Death is the great enemy, the great fear, of all people. But not for the Christian! Christ has risen from the dead. He is the "first fruits" or the cause of our own resurrection. Because he has risen, we, too, shall rise; death cannot hold us.

What, then do we ever have to fear? At the end of the world, all peoples will appear before the Lord. He will judge them on the basis of what they have done – or failed to do – to others. We shall be very surprised to hear that whatever we did – or failed to do – to our neighbor in need, we did (or failed to do) to Christ himself. Let us strive to see the image of Christ in every person. In this way we shall truly proclaim that he is king over our lives.

34TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

In the vision given to us in the Book of Revelation, we are offered a glimpse of the heavenly throne room, where all creation gathers to worship God. The four living creatures and the twenty-four elders continually proclaim the holiness, glory, and majesty of the Lord. Their worship reminds us that God is at the center of all things and that our lives should be ordered toward Him. It is easy to become consumed by the demands, distractions, and responsibilities of everyday life, sometimes forgetting the One who gives our lives meaning. Yet, like those gathered around the heavenly throne, we are called to make worship and gratitude an essential part of our daily lives. Every time we gather for the celebration of the Eucharist, we join in that same heavenly praise, giving glory to God who is worthy of all honor and worship.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the ten gold coins, reminding us that the gifts and responsibilities entrusted to us by God are not meant to be hidden away or wasted. Each of us has been given something valuable: our faith, our abilities, our time, and the opportunities to serve others. The question is not simply what we have received, but what we are doing with it. Faith is not something we are meant to keep to ourselves; it must be nurtured, shared, and put into action. We should never allow fear, complacency, or the excuse that we have little to offer to keep us from serving the Lord. God does not ask us to be successful by the standards of the world, but faithful with what He has entrusted to us. May we have the courage to put our gifts to work, so that when the Lord calls us to Himself, we can joyfully offer back the fruits of a life lived in faith.

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, commonly known as the Feast of Christ the King. This feast brings the Church's liturgical year to a close, reminding us that Jesus Christ is the beginning and the end of all things, the King whose kingdom will have no end.

Throughout the liturgical year, we have walked with Christ through His birth, ministry, suffering, death, and resurrection. Now, as we conclude this journey, we are invited to reflect upon whether Christ truly reigns in our hearts, our families, and our daily lives. His kingship is not one of earthly power, wealth, or authority, but one of humility, sacrifice, mercy, and love. Jesus is King Forever. As we prepare to begin a new liturgical year next Sunday with the First Sunday of Advent, may we recommit ourselves to allowing Christ to guide our lives and lead us toward the fullness of His eternal Kingdom.

Father Arisman

Whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.

Socks and Underwear Collection:

New socks and underwear—all sizes for men, women and children —can be donated in the red totes during Advent. All donations will remain local. Thank you!

Thought of the Week:

When once men recognize, both in private and in public life, that Christ is King, society will at last receive the great blessings of real liberty, well-ordered discipline, peace and harmony.

– Pope Pius XI, Quas Primas, 1925

Volunteers Needed to Light the Advent Wreath

The Liturgy Committee is seeking individuals or families to light the Advent Wreath at the beginning of Mass. If your family is interested in volunteering, please call Doris Karhoff, 217-653-2321.

As we prepare for the celebration of Christmas, we invite all parishioners to take part in a special tradition! Add a handful of straw to the stable as we prepare a warm and welcoming place for Baby Jesus. Each handful is a small reminder of the love, faith and joy we bring to the manger as we await His birth.

We are looking for a few helpers to take down the fall decorations following the 9:00 a.m. mass on Thanksgiving Day. If you are able to stay and lend a hand, your help would be greatly appreciated! Thank you for sharing your time and helping keep our church beautiful throughout the liturgical seasons.

Thanksgiving office hours: The Parish Office will be closed Thanksgiving Day, November 26 and the day after, Friday, November 27. We wish everyone safe travels and an enjoyable day with family and friends.

Christmas Card Shower for Parish Nursing Home Residents

It's time for our Church families to address Christmas cards for our parishioners who are in a nursing home or a memory care facility. There will be a bin in the back of Church as well as a bin inside the main entrance of the Parish Center to drop off your holiday cards. The cards will be delivered in time for Christmas. In each card, please sign your name and state you are from St. Francis Solanus Church. Put the nursing home resident's name and nursing home on the outside of the envelope. PLEASE DO NOT SEAL THE ENVELOPE. THE ABSOLUTE DEADLINE IS TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8. If you know anyone from our parish who is not on the list, please call Susan Mast, 217-430-3234. Thank you.

Reverse Advent Calendar to Benefit the Food Pantry

If you are looking for a good way to prepare for Christmas, throughout the Advent Season, we would like to suggest this: Each day, add a grocery item to a bag or box and on Christmas Eve donate the items to our Food Pantry. Bags with this list can be found at the entrances to church. Below are some ideas for items that are most needed:

Dec. 1 – Box of cereal	Dec. 13 – Pancake mix
Dec. 2 – Peanut butter	Dec. 14 – Canned spaghetti sauce
Dec. 3 – Mac & cheese	Dec. 15 – Spaghetti
Dec. 4 – Canned tuna	Dec. 16 – Pork and beans
Dec. 5 – Simple crackers	Dec. 17 – Canned soup
Dec. 6 – Can of mixed fruit	Dec. 18 – Applesauce
Dec. 7 – Canned corn	Dec. 19 – Syrup
Dec. 8 – Canned green beans	Dec. 20 – Jelly
Dec. 9 – Hamburger helper	Dec. 21 – Dish soap
Dec. 10 – Instant potatoes	Dec. 22 – Toothpaste
Dec. 11 – Canned chicken	Dec. 23 – Bar soap
Dec. 12 – Tuna helper	Dec. 24 – Toilet paper

Ladies of St. Francis News:

Thank you to all of the ladies who attended our November holiday dinner meeting. And a big thank you to the men of the Holy Name who cooked, served and cleaned up a delicious holiday meal for us. We wish you all a blessed Christmas season. See you in the spring!

Seeking a Few More Funeral Dinner Leaders

Hospitality is a core part of our Catholic stewardship, and hosting a funeral dinner is a very important way to extend love and support to a grieving family. St Francis is a large parish and we are needing a couple more funeral dinner leads. We have a very generous parish always willing to provide a dish, wash a dish or serve that day. What is needed is someone to step up and lead a team. We have a few teams now that can answer any questions and support you as you get started. For questions call Pat Holbrook 217-257-2570.

St. Francis Solanus School

INSPIRING FAITH, KNOWLEDGE & SERVICE

Third graders from St. Francis Solanus School and St. Francis Solanus Church PSR attended a retreat on Saturday, November 7. It was directed by teacher Marsha Collins. The third graders are preparing for the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. They participated in prayers and hands-on activities to better understand the meaning of sacraments. A grant funded the materials and a special lunch. The third graders will receive the sacraments on April 3, 2027, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield.

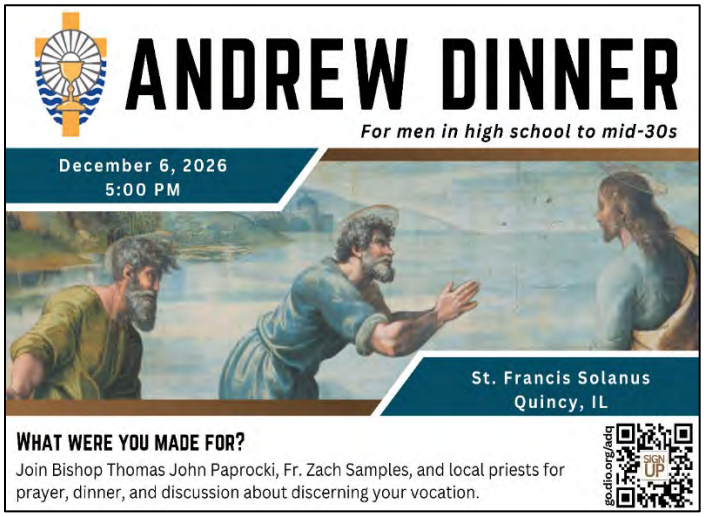

The CYO is looking for someone to represent St. Francis Solanus on its board. The group meets the second Monday of the month at 6 p.m. at St. Francis. If you're interested call Tom McLaughlin at 217-653-1032.

St. Francis School Principal Opening

Are you or someone you know called to Catholic school leadership?
