ASK FATHER
COLUMN

Q: My father is a member of SSPX. He is pressuring us to join. What guidance do you have for this kind of pressure or info between the difference of SSPX and our Catholic Church?

A: The main issue between the Society of Saint Pius X and the Catholic Church is their rejection of the doctrinal teachings of the Second Vatican Council and their defiance of papal authority. By disobeying the Pope and the teachings of the Second Vatican Council, the SSPX is now in a state of schism and hence excommunicated. Faithful Catholics, therefore, are not to attend SSPX Masses or other sacraments.

As for your father, always be respectful and continue to dialogue with him. One should never feel pressured to do anything.

St. Michael Prayer

During the convocation, Archbishop McKnight offered some guidance on celebrating the Liturgy. One of the topics was the recitation of the St. Michael Prayer at the end of Mass. Although we should have an appreciation for this prayer, it is not part of the Liturgy and care must be made that we do not confuse private devotion with public prayer- the Mass. Therefore, in adherence with the archbishop's direction, the St. Michael prayer will no longer be recited at the end of Mass. I do invite folks to continue to pray this prayer at the end of the rosary, at home or at any other occasion/gathering.
Thank you for your understanding and support.
