Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 8, 2026

Wisdom 6:12-16; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 or 4: 13-14; Matthew 25:1-13

The theme of today's Mass is "wisdom." A foolish or flighty person never thinks about goals or consequences; he/she never thinks about responsibilities; the fun of the present moment seems to be his/her only interest.

The wise person enjoys life in terms of goals and responsibilities. He/she sees that true joy and happiness will only be found in the pursuit of the right goals.

The foolish maidens in the Gospel didn't think to bring oil for their lamps. Their one purpose was to light the way for the bridegroom as he took the bride to his home. And they failed miserably in that one purpose; their sin was a failure to think, to consider, to take responsibility.

The first reading personifies wisdom. Anyone can be wise. Wisdom means seeking the real goal of life, and ordering everything in life toward that goal. Our one, over-riding goal of life is to please God in order to be happy with him here and hereafter. We need to "thirst for the Lord" as we sing in the Responsorial Psalm.

Our second reading is from 1 Thessalonians. The epistle was written to give hope to those who were discouraged about the delay in the Second Coming of Christ.

We must never give up hope. Heaven is our goal; the Lord will give us every grace needed to attain that goal if only we take the responsibility for our lives in wisdom. Let us, then, "Keep our eyes open," and live responsibly in the light of our goal

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The readings as we are coming to the end of the Church liturgical year focus on our end and the end of time. Wisdom reminds us that wisdom is not something hidden or reserved for a fortunate few; rather, it is readily available to those who seek it with sincere hearts and remain attentive to God's presence.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins - five wise and five foolish, who await the arrival of the bridegroom. The wise ones were prepared, bringing enough oil for their lamps, while the foolish ones were caught unprepared. This parable is a reminder that faith cannot simply be put off until tomorrow. We cannot borrow someone else's faith or expect to prepare our hearts at the last minute. Our relationship with the Lord must be nurtured each day through prayer, the Mass, the sacraments, acts of charity, and a willingness to follow His will. We do not know the day or the hour when the Lord will call us to Himself, but we do know that He desires us to be ready. May we live each day with the wisdom to recognize His presence, the faith to remain close to Him, and hearts prepared to welcome Him whenever He comes.

As all of you are probably aware now, my uncle, Monsignor Leo Enlow, died last Sunday on the solemnity of All Saints' Day. He had been fighting pancreatic cancer for about two years now. He was doing so well until he got pneumonia. Even with that he was fighting so hard and so well. Sunday I was with him and he was hungry, which was great since he had not been eating for 36 hours, so I went to get him something that was his favorite. I also grabbed dinner quickly myself. In the short time I was gone he passed. His heart just stopped. His passing was so unexpected, but truly a blessing. His heart was so taxed by his illnesses that it was worn out. He went in an instant.

This is all a stark reminder of the gospel today. Always be ready to meet the Lord and be prepared in faith and in the sacraments. Uncle Leo had both in abundance. He was a great uncle. A great man. A phenomenal priest. He poured his heart and soul into his ministry. He loved education and schools. He loved his people and where he served so much. Our family will certainly miss him, as I know many of you will as well. Please pray for Father Leo and please pray for my family. And please prepare yourselves in faith and the sacraments to always be ready to see the Lord. I am glad his suffering is ended, but still can't believe he is gone. Well done good and faithful servant. May you rest in God's eternal peace.

Father Arisman

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." – Matthew 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.
