Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 8, 2026

Wisdom 6:12-16; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 or 4: 13-14; Matthew 25:1-13

The theme of today's Mass is "wisdom." A foolish or flighty person never thinks about goals or consequences; he/she never thinks about responsibilities; the fun of the present moment seems to be his/her only interest.

The wise person enjoys life in terms of goals and responsibilities. He/she sees that true joy and happiness will only be found in the pursuit of the right goals.

The foolish maidens in the Gospel didn't think to bring oil for their lamps. Their one purpose was to light the way for the bridegroom as he took the bride to his home. And they failed miserably in that one purpose; their sin was a failure to think, to consider, to take responsibility.

The first reading personifies wisdom. Anyone can be wise. Wisdom means seeking the real goal of life, and ordering everything in life toward that goal. Our one, over-riding goal of life is to please God in order to be happy with him here and hereafter. We need to "thirst for the Lord" as we sing in the Responsorial Psalm.

Our second reading is from 1 Thessalonians. The epistle was written to give hope to those who were discouraged about the delay in the Second Coming of Christ.

We must never give up hope. Heaven is our goal; the Lord will give us every grace needed to attain that goal if only we take the responsibility for our lives in wisdom. Let us, then, "Keep our eyes open," and live responsibly in the light of our goal

A Message from Fr. Dan Bergbower

–GATHERING AND PRAYING FOR FR. LEO AND REFLECTING–

It is very important to gather with each other at the death of someone we love.

This past week on Monday afternoon the entire St. Peter School Family gathered in Church to pray the Rosary for Fr. Leo. There was sorrow for his passing, yet solace to know that he was no longer suffering but at home in heaven. We gathered strength from each other.

On Tuesday evening our parish family filled St. Peter Church for an impromptu Mass for Fr. Leo. What a beautiful way to honor him and pray for the repose of his soul. We were joined by Fr. Chuck Edwards, Fr. Tom Meyer, Fr. Troy Niemerg and Fr. Steve Arisman. The St. Peter Choir also joined and provided such beautiful music for this sacred event.

On Wednesday the School Mass was themed by our Eighth Grades dressed as their favorite Saint. During the homily each class was asked to give an example of Saintly things about Fr. Leo. Here is the list:

St. Peter School shares Saintly things about Fr. Leo:

8th Grades:
-No matter how sick he was, he was upbeat and taught the best he could.
-He taught everybody Sign Language.

7th Grades:
-He always showed care, compassion and support to everyone.
-He always brought us Skittles when we were in pre-school.

6th Grades:
-He served our parish for 15 years.
-He taught everyone about God.

5th Grades:
-Even though he was very sick, he still helped at our parish.
-He sang "Dominic the Donkey."

4th Grades:
-He received the Sacraments.
-He showed people how to love one another.
-He spread God's Word!

3rd Grades:
-He always made us laugh.
-He always loved us.

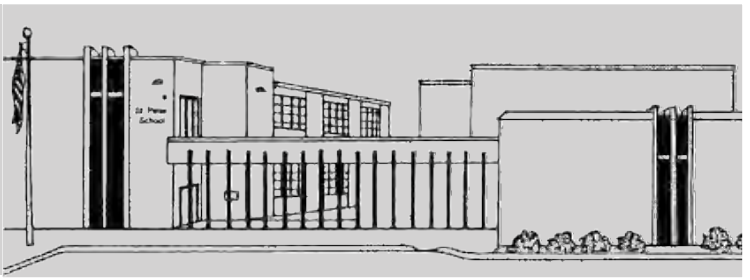

2nd Grades:
-Fr Leo taught us how to pray for people in need.
-He always had kindness in his heart.

1st Grades:
-Fr. Leo said yes to God about becoming a Priest.
-He was always nice to us.

Kindergarten:
-He taught people about Jesus.
-Fr. Leo went to Haiti with my mom to see our sister parish.

May Eternal Rest Be Granted unto Him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.
